LADYSMITH

Is Destined to Be the Scene of a Battle Between Britons and Boers.

OUTPOST SKIRMISHES ON

The Boers Gathering From all Sides to Attack Their English Toes.

VARIOUS MINOR NOTES OF WAR

LADYSMITH, Oct. 28.—A strong force of artillery and mounted infantry and cavalry was sent out by General White today to meet the advancing Boers on the Helmdraai road. They soon came in touch with the enemy and an artillery duel began. Fighting is going on three miles from Ladysmith.
Boers are being killed. Before White's force moved out numerous skirmishes had taken place between the Boers and British north and west of town.

HELVAYO, Oct. 28.—Lieutenant Llewellyn, with a force of Rhodesia police and railway men has been checking the Boers north of Helmdraai, on the Cape railway. He was assisted by an armed train. He engaged Boers near Lobatse, killing a number of them.

NOTES VIA LONDON.
It is reported kindly in offering from a severe plague of locusts. The British and Boers are but four miles apart at this point.

A Boer dispatch from Ladysmith says Boers shot down civilians at Lundee without provocation.

Remains of General Buller, the captain of the Orange Free State, have been found here. It is said an effort will be made to remove the remains and to install Mr. Buller as the successor.

During General Buller's retreat from Glencoe the Boers seized the vacant position, where the British had left their waterworks. The Boers were charged the waterworks only to find the Boers had flown.

Africans are endeavoring to persuade Buller, the British high commander, to issue a proclamation restraining the Boers from attacking the Boers.

BIG NEW OIL COMPANY.

HARTFORD, Oct. 28.—It is just learned that a company with $100-000,000 capital will be formed in opposition to the Standard Oil company that will be a great power in Indiana, Ohio, Texas, California New York and other oil fields. It will compete with the Standard in every branch of industry and make a determined effort to control the oil industry of the world.

THE ALLEGORICAL PARADE

Thousands of People Were on the Streets to Witness the Spectacle—Queen Crowned.

MYSTIC CIRCLE BALL AT PALMER

The Paducah carnival of '99 has closed. It began under auspicious circumstances, and no one was disappointed in it. It is lucky that the rain came when it did, but the benign weather clerk was kind, and the outside conditions were most favorable for a creditable entertainment.

The closing scenes of the carnival were about the prettiest of all, which is saying a great deal.
Last night the allegorical parade was witnessed by thousands of people, as the Elks parade the night before, although there were at times a light fall of rain. The Murphyshero band was in the lead, and after the cane walkers, the float of the king and queen came. The retinue and tough riders, with gaily caparisoned horses and gorgeously decked heralds, pages and attendants, added to the charm of the picture, and Miss Elizabeth Sinnott, as queen, won the admiration of all for the charming manner in which she bore herself.

One of Kentucky's fairest young ladies, whose unsurpassed beauty was enhanced by the magnificent dress she wore, she was greeted with cheers all along the line, and her dignified bearing and courteous acknowledgment of the admiration expressed on every hand, made her all the more popular.
The other allegorical chariots followed at intervals, and the professional cake walkers attracted their part of the attention.
Several of those who participated in the flower parade were in the procession last night, and were a number of the floats. These appeared because of special mention in the prize award yesterday.

The fairer than the moon, composed of sixteen members of the typographical union, and under the command of Captain E. W. Crumbaugh, made an excellent display, especially when it is taken into consideration that they had drilled but a few times.
A sudden shower towards the close came near breaking up the crowd, but it ceased as suddenly as it began, and the cheering hosts rallied and when the king, queen and retinue returned to the hotel, there was a jam of people to witness the coronation, which took place half an hour after the procession had ended.

The ceremony was exceedingly impressive, taking place on the Fifth street balcony of the Palmer house, a fine light being thrown on it from the top of the custom house. Surrounding the queen were her pages and the maids and matrons of honor, the whole making a grand life picture.
The band then played and the people retired to the hall room, where they danced until about midnight.
The ball was one of the most enjoyable ever given in Paducah, and there were never so many visitors at a ball at the same time before.

The king, whose identity had been carefully guarded through all the preparations and festivities, eluded many attempts to get at him, and highly ingenious impostors. When he unmasked at the ball last night, he proved to be none other than Mr. Thomas C. Leach, of the city. It seems that he was not suspected half as much as several others.

This morning and afternoon most of the visitors who did not go last night, left for their respective homes, well pleased with the carnival, and with the hospitality of Paducah. By tomorrow most of the hundreds of people who came to the carnival will have gone home, although a few are to remain as guests of friends and relatives for a few days longer.

CARNIVAL NOTES.

Little Robert Fisher and Lou Keller were crowned to the king of the carnival and enjoyed their distinction very much.

Miss Florence Owen is especially fortunate in winning prizes, yesterday's carnival being the third one she has secured. Mr. Talbot Laurie was the poudest man in Paducah and his legion of friends took pleasure in crowning him.

The grand marshals are certainly to be congratulated on the way they handled the procession. They worked hard. Special credit is due Captain J. W. Fisher who planned the parade and carried it out to the letter.
While Ruth distinguished himself as a champion for the queen. The way he handled the ribbons would have done credit to Gus Thompson or Wayne Tully. He looked very pretty, resembling a girl more than the little man he is.

The queen was all right, the king was all right, the parades were all right, the weather was possible and the people were well pleased. Great credit is due the Mystic Circle, the Elks, the Commercial club, the merchants and every one who worked so hard and so faithfully. It was gotten

A FITTING CARNIVAL FINALE

Beauty and Chivalry Gaced the Event and Paid Homage to the Royal

WAIN WHO RECEIVED TH M

Beauty and chivalry such as Kentucky can so well supply gaced the Mystic Circle ball at the Palmer house last night. The function was a fitting climax to the grand carnival and a flattering credit to the circle known only to itself. Adjectives are inadequate to the task of describing and praising the ball and at would hide its head at any attempt to picture the sight. There was loveliness and loveliness—beauty and grace in extreme—with gallant beaux to admire and pay homage.
Charming lady guests from sister states rivaled Kentucky's fairest and beaux from other places made themselves competent aids to the club and their guests. There was perhaps never a grander life scene presented. A marked feature was the "crown" and "dresses" of the elegant costumes of the ladies, not excelled by the profusion of flowers visible every where. All was beautiful, all was grand.

Miss Lizzie Sinnott, the fair queen, and Mr. T. C. Leach, the noble king, attended in elegant costumes royal in design, with page attendants, surrounded by maids of honor and supported by matrons of honor, welcomed the guests and accepted their homage most gracefully.

The queen, always lovely, was gaily admitted and the courtly bearing of the king won many compliments.

The throne was surrounded throughout the evening and when the royal twain retired they passed the length of the capacious dance hall through lines of subjects amid a buzz of long live our sovereigns.
Capable hands had prepared the dance hall and the decorations lent much to the beautiful scene.

Buchanan's orchestra, of Cairo, furnished the music of the evening and it was most excellent.
Other than the royal twain there were present, the

They Are Ticked to Death Over Kentucky Hospitality.

Mayor N. B. Thistlewood, of Cairo, Ill., and the seventeen officials who accompanied him, as guests of the Paducah Council and mayor, have returned home, and expressed themselves as well pleased with their treatment here.
In fact they declared there was nothing like Kentucky hospitality. They were taken everywhere by Mayor Lang and the city officials, and everything worth seeing was shown them.
They were not allowed to want, and were shown every courtesy that could be devised. The last of them left last night for home.

Among the gentlemen were: S. B.
Thistlewood, mayor, W. P. Gregory, alderman, and Comptroller W. P.
Jones, J. W. McCall, Dr. W. W. Stevenson, W. B. Wood, George J. Krebs, W. H. Moursy, city clerk, J. O. Price,

POLICE COURT.

There Was a Small Docket This Morning.

Judge Sanders held police court this morning for the first time in three days, owing to the carnival. Strange as it may seem, there were very few, if any, arrests made as a result of the carnival.

Floa Pattison, for disorderly conduct, was fined $10. She was arrested before the carnival, as were Gillie Travis and Augusta Ligon, colored, who were tried for a fight, and the former was fined $10 and costs and the latter woman acquitted.
The case against Dolly McBride and Luke Haynes, for robbing Tom Haynes of $30 and a switch key and other things, was left open until Monday morning.

A bench of the peace case against Ed Farris and Walter Sullivan, was

The robbery case against Ed Lindsey, charged with robbing a man named Woodruff, of Union county, was called again and continued until Monday. The authorities have been unable to get the witnesses. If they are not found then, it is probable that the prisoner will be turned over to the sheriff, who has a bench warrant against him from Marshall county, where he is wanted for conspiracy.

OFFICIAL AWARDS.

A Confusion in Numbers as to the Mercantile Display.

The common error was made in all the newspapers that Mr. T. B. Lyle was awarded the loving cup for having the best mercantile display in the parade yesterday.

This was the result of a confusion of numbers by the judges. Messrs. Pete Eley, of Union, H. Hollings, of Linkleville, and Dr. H. H. H. of Ogden's.
Mr. Lyle's friends will regret that he did not secure the prize, but they may have the satisfaction of knowing that he had one of the prettiest and most artistic floats ever seen here.

Not Up to Date.

Some people find it hard to keep their stock of information about men and things up to the present moment, and are consequently betrayed into asking questions about dead-and-gone people as if they were living. A starling instance of this was the following inquiry, lately received by a firm of well-known music publishers in London, from the organist of a church in New London, Conn.: "Would you kindly inform me how a letter would reach Mr. Ben Johnson, author of the song 'Drunk to me only with wine', this evening?" This, perhaps, is an even more disastrous failure to "keep even" than that involved in an application received from a dealer in fishing tackle by a firm of Boston publishers, for the present address of "Mr.
Isaac Walton, author of 'The Complete Angler'." Not long ago Mr. W. S.
Gilbert, author of the librettos of several operas, was asked by a pretentious woman. She asked Mr. Gilbert several questions about musical composers, to show that she knew all about them. "And what about Bach?" she asked. "Is he composing nowadays?"
"No, ma'am," answered Gilbert, "he is decomposing."

SATURDAY, OCT. 28, 1899.

The success of the Paducah Carnival clearly proves that Paducahans are not deficient in enterprise and push. The result exceeded even the most extravagant anticipations, and the crowd brought to Paducah, and on remarkably short notice, was the largest ever witnessed here.

Hardly a month ago the movement was put on foot to give a fall entertainment in Paducah, and although there was some difficulty at first, it soon became apparent that everyone was thoroughly in earnest, and with a vim and zeal equal to any one's, the Paducah business men worked until their plans were fully matured, and then began the work of advertising the carnival through the surrounding country. Their time was limited, but they worked hard, and as stated before, the result was the largest crowd ever in Paducah at one time.

To the carnival committee above all others is due the credit of this entertainment's success. They looked after subscriptions, made all arrangements and outlined every detail. But there are many others who also deserve credit, among them being the merchants who contributed to the carnival fund, those who were in the parade, the Elks for taking charge of one night's entertainment, and all others who in any way contributed to the affair.

Paducah should feel proud of what she has achieved. The carnival has done more to advertise her than anything ever given her before, and the good forthcoming will be lasting. Everybody was pleased at the hospitality they were accorded, for the entertainment furnished them on their visit, and for other courtesies.

Last, but not least, the carnival has paved the way, as it were, for a more elaborate entertainment next year, one which will exceed anything ever attempted here before. The men of Paducah have demonstrated what they can do when they try, and next year plans will be set on foot earlier, and the biggest carnival ever known in this end of the state will be given.

Hon. C. J. Bronston may call Gov. Brown's unfinished list of appointments.

The English in the Herts have certainly found an enemy worthy of their best steel.

Good bye, Hill. Come back again, come often. The latch string hangs on the outside of the door. You will find a most hearty welcome.

Goebbles are making it very warm for themselves. They are becoming more daring in their building work, or proposals in this direction. It is now known, but will find them selves in a hornet's nest on the 7th prox. Their game of bluff will be seen by others and discounted.

Texas hanged three murderers yesterday. One was Rev. G. W. Morrison, who killed his wife so he might marry a young girl; another was Sam Watson, who killed a man and his wife, and the other was Walter Ford, who murdered his sweetheart. Texas is clearly improving morally.

Goebble's defeat will be a salutary lesson. It will teach the so-called party leaders that convention nomnations can't be stolen without defeat ensuing and that party platforms must have sound provisions in them. Last, but not least, it will teach parties not to attempt to shove down the throats of the people such heinous laws as the Goebel election law.

Uley Woodson is credited with having said in New York, whither he went for campaign money for Governor Taylor, that Taylor would have to have more than 15,000 majority to be governor. This would indicate Woodson is not as sanguine as other of the "trailers," not as to the vote of Taylor but the ability of the machine to count him out. Uley is clearly fixing for a soft place to lie down.

There are newspapers in this district who are praising Goebbles who are the next election will be darning the same men. Just because a man is for your candidate doesn't make him perfect and when the time is too late for retraction it is often learned a snake has been warmed at the bosom. It is pretty safe to discount several times every poisonous politician you find, especially on the stump, and let him alone. He is a schemer first and last, and they are a ticky set.

It is noticed that through the amount of trade done in the United States is far in excess of that of any former period the number of business failures is much below the figures of last year. This is a good sign. There is greater industrial activity than ever before, and it is attended with greater safety. Fortunately, too, the improvement shows no sign of being near its end. Better times are likely to come to the country next year than even those which prevail now. The Republican prosperity is not going to leave us as early as some of the Democrats have been predicting.

NEWS NOTES.

The assignment of the Sayre bank at Lexington caused a sensation, but it is said all depositors will be paid in full.

HIS NATAL DAY.

Mr. George Augustus, the well-known contractor, is today celebrating his fifty-second birthday and apparently is good for as many years more. Mr. Augustus has been a Paducahan since the summer of 1858, coming here from Mt. Holly, N. J., his native place with his parents. He has resided constantly in the Sixth ward of the city since his residence and consequently never voted elsewhere. He can tell many interesting early history notes of the city, and therefore is ever entertaining.

ELOAT BURNED.

J. W. Glenaves & Son's handsome float burned yesterday afternoon late, while it was being prepared for the night parade. It was one of the prettiest in the procession, and had so much valuable drapery about it that the blaze could not be extinguished. The loss will be about $50 or more.

Observations
....at Random.

One of the unusual spectacles witnessed here yesterday was that early in the morning of an old man leaning helplessly against a fence to dispose of his supper or breakfast, it is not known which—probably both. His aged wife stood by and shamefacedly directed her attention to something else while her huge load thus supported itself. The old man had intimated to a very excessive extent, and his load was too great, especially for the patient wife, who had to half carry him, anyhow.

It is remarkable that there was no more disorder than there was yesterday and the day before. The crowd was the largest ever seen in Paducah. It is admitted by all, yet there were no arrests of consequence. The police did excellent service. The people everywhere seemed to be simply on having a good time without going too far. Marshal Collins thinks the behavior of the people is not only commendable, but remarkable as well. He feels that they are entitled to great credit, for hundreds of visitors remarked on the excellent order maintained everywhere.

Newspapers in lunatic asylums are quite novelties, but there are a great many of them, which fairly teem with wit and humor, not particularly because articles smacking of insanity are tabooed, but because some of the inmates are very bright except in a few things.

In one journal of this kind an unfortunate tells the following reason why he is there:

"I met a young widow with a good stepdaughter. And the widow married me. Then my father, who was a wild ower, met my stepdaughter and married her. That made my wife the mother-in-law of her father-in-law, and made my stepdaughter my mother and my father my stepson.

Then my stepmother, the stepdaughter of my wife, had a son. That boy, of course, was my brother, because he was my father's son. He was also the son of my wife's stepdaughter, and therefore her grandson. That made me grandfather to my stepbrother. Then my wife had a son. My mother-in-law, the stepmother of my son, is also his grandmother, because she is her stepson's child. My father is the brother-in-law of my child, because his stepmother is his wife. I am the brother of my own son, who is also the child of my step-grandmother. I am my mother's brother-in-law, my wife is her own child's aunt, my son is my father's nephew, and I am my own grandfather. And after trying to explain the relationship in our own family some seven times a day to our calling friends for a fortnight, I was brought here—no, came of my own will."

Another writer declares gleefully that he never found rest from his mother-in-law before, and that he intends to continue as long as possible to bedevil the physicians in such manner that he is insane. An other writes that the fate of all great men has been to be maltreated or overlooked by their contemporaries, and therefore he is now detained "for the thick skulls and the thick sense are jealous of my being the first to discover that we could all live forever if we would only walk on our hands instead of our feet."

A well-known young farmer of Paducah possesses the uncommon confidence of breaking nearly every record during in which he sows. As most farmers have no money, and he is a farmer, the chaff he demolishes are usually at some one else's expense. He has broken nearly a dozen at various young ladies' houses, but the latest story he tells of an experience he had in Missouri recently.

He met a young lady and was so smitten. He went about 100 miles to see her, and she invited him into the parlor, and the first thing she did was to offer him a rocking chair. He suspected the fate that awaited him, but the chair looked good and strong, and he reluctantly accepted it.

It was only a short time until the chair came to pieces, and he was thrown in a heap at the feet of his fair hostess. When he arose he was covered with confusion and shame, and the young lady was naturally embarrassed. His wife came to his rescue, however, and he remarked:

"Well, Miss Mary, I expected to fall at your feet, but I didn't expect to do it the first time I came to see you."

A new chair has replaced the old, but now he always declines a rocker.

The people of Paducah could learn a great deal about how to manage themselves in a crowd, and plenty of the visitors would evidently not find such instruction amiss. People should always keep to the right, and there would be no trouble. This was exemplified no where better than at the world's fair, where, as will be remembered, the crowds were almost perfectly managed. Everybody was taught the first thing to go to the right, and to the right they went.

In Paducah, during the dense crowds of the past few days, the people have gone the best way they could. They pushed and crammed and jostled, and in a short time everybody was in a bad humor. Hereafter they should remember the brief instructions of men who have managed crowds for years—to always keep to the right.

The rubber ball had become a nuisance before it ended in Paducah. If the carnival had lasted another day, it would have become unbearable for a majority of the people who had to pass along the streets. Yesterday afternoon a gang of young people stood near the Palmer house and used the rubber balls to such an extent that people became afraid to pass that way.

A bander who had been annoyed the night before with them while on duty, however, got even in a laughable way. While in his saloon he was so harrassed that finally he set a bottle of seltzer on the counter and used it on every rubber ball flinger who showed up.

When he passed through the crowd near the Palmer yesterday he could not successfully run the gambit. He was struck on all sides, and hunting for revenge, he went to a nearby saloon and bought him a bottle of seltzer. Blowing it under his coat, he passed along again, and when the ball-flingers made their attack he threw a strong wave of air over them from their eyes to their shoes, and soon cleared away the crowd and vanquished the whole push.

It was not long until paper, corn, flour, butter and everything else was being thrown, and finally it wound up in a genuine fight between a colored boy and some white men, in which the white men drew knives and the negro went after a gun.

The amusing sight witnessed on Broadway was of a young lady who got away with a rubber ball by throwing it at a young man. He seized her, held her firmly and with a large rubber ball filled with water squirted about a put of water down her back and over her face. Needless to say she learned a lesson that many others ought to have been taught.

In Society.

The past week has been a gay one for the society folks. The carnival, with its numerous delightful gayeties, is a thing of the past. It was "one round of pleasure" from the first to the last, and songs of praise are on the lips of every one for the efficient management of the festivities in all its features. The evening event—literally and figuratively—for society folks was the handsome ball given by the Mystic Circle at the Palmer last evening. It was the first dance of the season and will long be remembered as one of the largest and handsomest functions in the history of local society.

There are several entertainments on the calendar for next week—the Notre reception dance Wednesday evening and several small affairs complimentary to some of the fair visitors in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Edmund P. McFarland and daughter, Miss Marie, have issued invitations to a reception dinner to be given at the handsome Nib home, in West End, Wednesday, November 1.

The Married Ladies' Euchre club were very pleasantly entertained by Mrs. O. L. Gregory Wednesday evening. The lady's prize, a pretty toilet bottle, was awarded to Miss Inez Whitefield, of Clarksville. Mr. Chas. Spillman captured the gentleman's prize, a handsome tobacco box.

Miss Inez Whitefield, of Clarksville, is visiting Mrs. R. B. Phillips.

Mr. S. N. Leonard and daughter, Miss Sallie, attended the carnival festivities this week returning home today.

Misses Nora Anderson, of Owensboro, and Mary Hotteloffe, of Pineville, maidens of honor to the queen, are visiting Miss Elizabeth Sinnott.

Miss Mary Wynne-McCarty, of Fulton, one of the maids of honor at the carnival ball, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Overby this week.

Miss Mayne Elliott, Mayfield's maid of honor to the carnival, is the pleasant guest of Miss Allice Hagley.

Misses Edith Spear, of Chicago, and Sam McMillan, of Paris, are the guests of Misses Howell, on West Broadway.

Miss Gertrude Asher, of Memphis, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Thompson.

Misses Frank and Hephzibah Dumas, of Paris, Tenn., came up for the carnival and are the guests of Miss Ora Leigh.

Miss Effie McCoy, of Galesburg, one of the maids of honor to our queen, returned to her home this morning.

Miss Mary Walker, of Dyersburg, is visiting her brother Mr. Richard Walker.

Miss Louise Bracken, of Dyersburg, is visiting Miss Marie Noble.

Miss Georgia Scott, of Dyersburg, is the guest of Miss Alice Cunningham.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Cooley and daughter, Miss Minerva, of Dyersburg, attended the carnival festivities and ball. Miss Cooley was one of the maids of honor to the queen.

Misses Maye and Fannie Higgins, of St. Louis, are the guests of Miss Mary Paxton.

The owners of the Brook Hill placed their yacht at the disposal of their friends the past week and there were several delightful excursion parties Thursday and Friday.

Mr. S. H. Morgan, of Memphis, is the guest of Mrs. T. C. Leach at the Palmer.

Mr. W. M. Stephens, of Louisville, was mixing with his numerous friends during the carnival gayeties.

Mr. Will Farley returned yesterday from Cuba, where he has been stationed since his company was mustered out.

Burial Times: The last wonderful tale being told among the business men of Paducah is concerning a monster said to be lying near Shewels. There are several versions of this strange phenomenon in circulation in Paducah but only a few main features are common to them all. A few months ago in Paducah, a villager heard a strange and mysterious voice in the jungle uttering in thunders the words, "I am going to lay," which were repeated frequently several times a day for many days. Eventually the egg was laid, and its size is said to exceed that of ten large paddy baskets. Nobody will go near this egg, from which now come the words, "I am going to hatch," also repeated many times every day, and the people are now looking forward to some extremely wonderful appearance.

last night it seemed as if he was about to go to sleep.

—Mr. Duke Story, of near Ozan, Marshall county, yesterday lost his 3 year-old boy, who died of congestion.

The remains were buried today.

—Paducah doesn't do things by halves. She can't be that small.

—There is always a calm after a storm. Paducah, so lively for several days, is very quiet today.

—The rain made it necessary to pull down the banners—the decorations have disappeared rapidly today.

—"Bill" has gone from our midst.

May he come again; yes, come often.

died yesterday. Burial at Wyatt gave away.

—The Murphy's band—which so delighted the people with its fine music during the carnival—this forenoon complimented Friedman, Keller

& Co., the Citizens' Savings bank and some others with a serenade.

They were royally received.

—Owing to the rain of this morning today has been damp and gloomy and quite cool.

—There was no session of court this morning, and court will convene again Monday morning, having adjourned Wednesday for the carnival.

—Jack Rogers, a steamboat man, was painfully hurt on the Tennessee yesterday by a hook catching his leg. Dr. Pendley dressed the injury.

—Mekist Pete and Cal Anderson, colored, were arrested last night on a charge of immorality, and will be tried Monday before Judge Sanders.

—MEASURING LIGHTNING.

How Humboldt struck on the Fulgurate

Island.

It is not generally known that many flashes of lightning not only measure themselves but actually manufacture the recorder by which they are defined.

When a bolt of lightning strikes a rod of sand it plunges downward into the sand for a distance less or greater, transforming simultaneously into glass the silica in the material through which it passes. Thus, by its great heat, it forms a glass tube of precisely its own size. Now and then such a tube known as "fulgurite" is found and dug up. Fulgurites have been followed into the sand by excavation for nearly 30 feet. They vary in interior diameter from the size of a quill to 10 inches or more according to the "bore" of the flash. Fulgurites are found also in solid rock, though very naturally of slight depth, and frequently existing merely as a thin, glassy coating on the surface. Such fulgurites occur in astonishing abundance on the summit of Little Ararat in Armenia. The rock is soft and so porous that blocks of it can be obtained, perforated in directions by little tubes filled with bottle-green glass formed from the fused rock. There is a small specimen in the national museum which has the appearance of having been bored by the toro, and the holes made by the worm subsequently filled with glass.

Some wonderful fulgurites were found by Humboldt, on the high Nevada de Toluca, in Mexico. Masses of rock were covered with a thin layer of green glass. Its peculiar shimmer in the sun led Humboldt to ascend the precipitous peak, at the risk of his life.
